

YOU CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE

I can, I will, I must

" To make a difference in someone's world you don't have to be Amazing, Rich, Talented, Beautiful or Perfect. You just have to be You and Care. "

With this great saying I wish you a wonderful morning to honourable judges, respected teachers my beloved friends. Myself Dnyanda Sudhir Bhandwalkar standing before you to deliver my point of view on topic you can make a difference

In today's world, a lot can be said about making a difference, People who believe that they can make a difference are the people who shape our society today and have helped us in bettering the world we have today.

It is important to keep in mind that one person can and has made a difference. For example - Rosa Parks and Martin Luther King in Civil Rights movement. I want to make an impact on the world much like theirs and change the views of our society.

I have, for the majority of my life, lived sheltered life and never realised how corrupt our society really was. Our nation has, in some ways proved to be without moral. In fact, the entire world is based on "The Rich Get Richer" theory. I, for one want to change that I want to be a government official that supports morality, understands the people, and truly unites the nation. I want everybody to have the opportunity to live a decent life that is not limited by his or her financial situation, race or background.

I understand that it would be difficult to accomplish all that I would like to, but it all starts with small steps. Small steps can be taken to accomplish big things

"Change one small thing today and bigger changes will follow you"
